

THREE EDUCATIONAL POLICIES

1 , DIPLOMA POLICIES (POLICIES ON ACADEMIC DEGREE CONFERMENT)

- Acquire the ability to understand and resolve various global problems equipped with advanced expert knowledge and engineering of international development and global cooperation.
- Acquire interdisciplinary intellect for issues equipped with advanced culture for political and social diversity all over the world.
- Acquire the ability to investigate/analyze and collect specific information in order to practice problem-solving ability of various problems/issues in Japan and worldwide from a global perspective.
- Acquire the ability to plan/propose and communication skills that can be applied to global practices.

2 , CURRICULUM POLICIES (CURRICULUM TO ACHIEVE ACADEMIC/EDUCATIONAL TARGET) THE CURRICULUM OF PROGRAM PROVIDES;

- Provide a group of area studies courses to understand regional diversity, and a group of global studies courses to understand relationship between nations/nation and society/nation and non-state entity from a universal perspective.
- Collaborate 2 groups of courses organically in order to deal with various problems occur in diverse global space, such as social development and international political/economical phenomena.
- Provide courses for on-site studies to engage with field research in order to cultivate practical ability for investigation and resolution of various global problems.

3 , ADMISSION POLICIES

- Person who has basic academic skills of global cooperation theory, political studies, regional research, etc. in order to learn international studies.
- Person who is interested in various global problems and is willing to take on a challenge to resolve new issues, equipped with broad interdisciplinary culture and advanced practical ability required for problem-solving.
- Person who has strong interest and motivation in contributing to the community through global and area studies.